

History? English

Who was Tutankhamun?

Pretend you are a radio or tv presenter and you are given the opportunity to interview Tutankhamun. You need to be able to explain to the listener who he is and what he did. Are you able to find out lots about him to make the listeners want to know more. Watch <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zg87xb/articles/zvmkxhk> as you might gather some information to help you construct your questions. Add Tutankhamun's replies to your work.

Science

What Is a Force?

Describe what a force is.
Draw a sketch to show how a force works.

PSHE

Action for Happiness June calendar Challenge
Each day complete the Joyful June daily challenges.

P.E.

Now Lockdown has been relaxed a little we are allowed to exercise more during the day. Over the next week each day try 3 different types of exercise for example: go for a walk, ride your bike and follow a Joe Wicks workout session. Keep a diary each day to check that you vary what you do. You could try some yoga! <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCSOy3EpxBlvxE6 EFDhT yA/videos>

Maths

White Rose Maths - Fractions

Visit

<https://whiterosemaths.com/homelearning/> for daily maths lessons. (The videos give excellent instructions on how to successfully complete the task.)

Art

Make your own Tutankhamun mask.

Recommended Daily Activities

- Doodle Maths
- Doodle Tables
- Doodle English/Spelling
- Read your book for 30 minutes remember to talk about what is going on in the book. Discuss new vocabulary, when you finish discuss events that have happened in the book.

Ongoing Maths and English:

Cassop School Website - online learning

- White Rose Maths Visit <https://whiterosemaths.com/homelearning/> for daily maths lessons.
- Learn the words on You tube for 'Down in the Coalmine underneath the ground' and 'Working Man'
- Oxford Owl activities www.oxfordowl.co.uk
- Picture news
- BBC Bitesize

Please upload some of the work you complete to our Facebook page as I'd love seeing what you are all doing.