

This week (27th September – 1st October 2021)

This week, Class 4 participated in a gymnastics festival at Sherburn Gymnastics Club. The children loved exploring a range of apparatus including the bars, beam, vault and trampoline. Class 4's balance and agility was put to the test when they tackled an obstacle course. Well done Class 4!

Congratulations again to our Rights Respecting steering group – one of their first jobs will be to ask their peers about after school clubs. What activities would they like to be able to take part in after school?
